

Itochi

A criminal gang operating out of the badlands south of Leith, the Itochi are highly organised, if small in number. Human members of the gang ape their Nazzadi counterparts, tinting their skin, wearing red contact lenses, and sporting tattoos. The gang has ready access to firearms and often hire themselves out as muscle to other gangs, and run their own "protection racket" in their territory, but they are willing to turn their hands to anything. They often refer to each other by military titles yet few, if any, have seen active service. Once you join the Itochi, your oath is for life - the only way to leave is in a box.
