

Melestrua's Mystara

Threshold - The Border Town

Mystara: a world created by TSR to accompany the Dungeons and Dragons boxed sets in the 1980s.

This campaign is based on the Mystara world, with additional colour and some dark secrets of my own. It is being run using Dungeons and Dragons 5th edition (D&D 5e).

The campaign starts in Threshold, a logging town in the foothills of the Altan Tepes mountains on the northern edge of the Grand Duchy of Karamaikos. Characters are settled in Threshold, but there are dark things afoot, and someone needs to investigate...

Meetings

Kickoff/character creation session is Saturday 16th September 10:30.

Regular meetings approximately twice per month on Monday evenings near Blackford Hill in the south of Edinburgh.
